R.C.I.A. DISCUSSION

SING TO THE LORD

The importance of music in religion is clearly shown in the Bible. The verb “to sing” (with related words such as “song”, and so forth) is one of the most commonly used words in the Bible. It occurs 309 times in the Old Testament and 36 times in the New. Liturgical music rises up out of the love that responds to God’s love made flesh in Christ, the love that for us went into death.

As sacramental people we believe the senses of the body are goods and the things which appeal to those senses can be as well. The Mass calls upon all the senses: Taste and see, hear and feel and even smell is all part of the liturgical experiences. Incense, beautiful art, and song all serve as aids to worship.

The purpose of Sacred Music then is the glory of God and the sanctification (making-holy) of the faithful. The mission of music at Mass is to worship God and lead the people in the worship of God. At Mass we are called to full, conscious and active participation. Our external actions of reading, singing, presenting gifts etc. help us focus on the liturgy and the transforming power of God. Singing of the Church comes ultimately out of love. St. Augustine says singing is a lover’s thing. It is the utter depth of love that produces the singing. The Holy Spirit is love, and it is he who produces the singing. He is the Spirit of Christ, the spirit who draws us into love for Christ and so leads to the Father. (the Spirit of the Liturgy, pg. 142)

Singing in Church can be one of the most potent forms of worship. Feeling embarrassed or nervous about singing in public is a normal reaction that can be overcome through improving your confidence and developing your singing voice. Ultimately, it’s more important that singing makes you happy rather than if it sounds good.

If we only realized that the God who loves us is intently listening at every Sunday Mass. Where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I in the midst of them. The angels and the saints are singing, and we have an opportunity to join in God’s praises. Such a great opportunity is missed at most Sunday Masses. So let us raise our voices in praise during Mass.

Prayer for Safety In Hurricane Season

O God, Master of this passing world,
hear the humble voices of your children.
The Sea of Galilee obeyed Your order
and returned to its former quietude.

You are still the Master of land and sea.
We live in the shadow of a danger
over which we have no control:
the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant,
can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep
its conventional boundaries, invade our land,
and spread chaos and disaster.

During this hurricane season we turn to You,
O loving Father.
Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with passing of time.

O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our beloved Mother,
we ask you to plead with your Son on our behalf,
so that spared from the calamities common to this area
and animated with a true spirit of gratitude,
we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son
to reach the heavenly Jerusalem, where a stormless eternity awaits us. Amen.

[Composed by Most Rev. Maurice Schexnayder (1895-1981),
Second Bishop of Lafayette (1956-1973), following Hurricane Audrey in 1957]
