TOTUS TUUS TOTALLY YOURS

The Five Pillars of Totus Tuus

The Eucharist

The Eucharist is an integral part of the Totus Tuus schedule. Prayer provides the structure, but the celebration of the holy sacrifice of the Mass is the "source and summit" of the daily schedule.

Marian Devotion

Totus Tuus catechists and counselors (missionaries) lead young people of the program to Jesus for a week, however, Mary will lead them to Jesus for a lifetime. Meditating on the mysteries of the Rosary, we come to see how Mary always leads us to her Son.

Catechetical Instruction

Totus Tuus instructs young people on the tenets of the Catholic faith to cultivate both a firm intellectual grounding and a solid relationship with Jesus. All of our teachings aim to help young people grow in their faith and friendship with Jesus Christ.

Vocation Discernment

Totus Tuus strives to foster Christian vocations by encouraging young people to begin discerning God's call in their lives. College-aged teachers sign a "covenant" in which they promise to be open to and actively discern God's will for them. Through this commitment, they can help others do the same.

Fun

Totus Tuus demonstrates that one can be a faithful Catholic and still have fun. Morning "pump up," silly skits and songs, recess and water fights at each parish infuse the element of fun into the program.

Join us for a fun and faith-filled week!
Learn about prayer and the call to holiness
while growing in your relationship with the Lord.

Remember

RED BIRD MINISTRIES

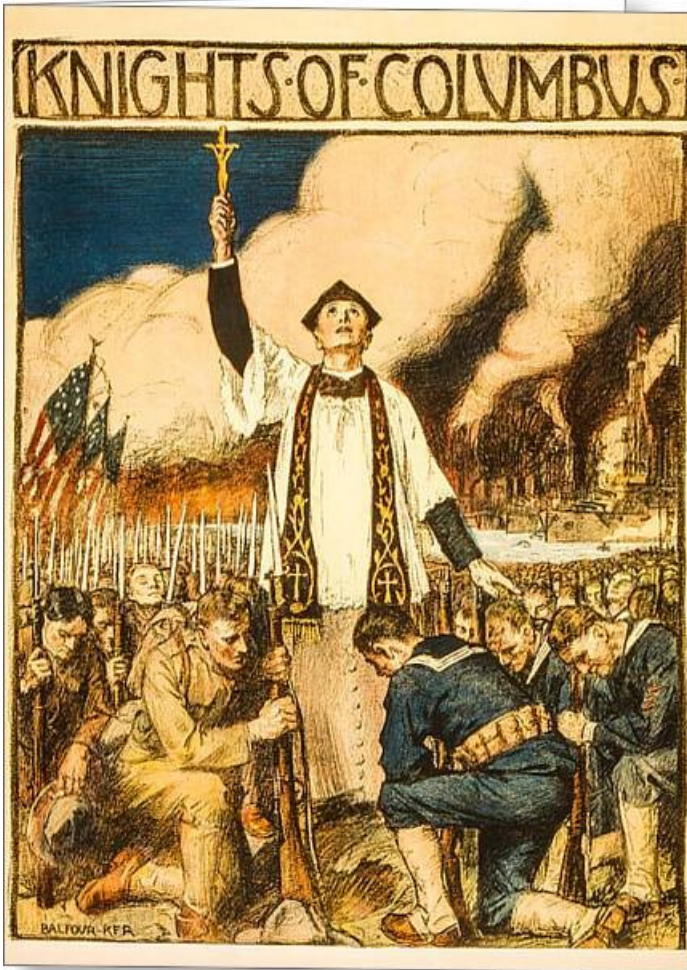

Remember, our newest initiative, is a grief-support program designed specifically to help comfort those who are shocked, devastated, and crushed by the unexpected burden of suicide.

The Remember program is what I have been looking for. I have found a community where I can share and connect with others that have lost a child to suicide. This program has really helped me. I want others to know how big a loss we have experienced. Our son Lance was our first child, we were so blessed to have him for 21 years. He loved to hunt and fish and play baseball. We miss him dearly and we never want him to be forgotten.
Thank you for this group.

THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD

The Flag, the Sword and the Cross. These glorious symbols characterize patriotism, liberty and faith; the heaven-sent attributes of our Christian citizenship.

The flag of our Country: We love it and shall ever defend it.

The Sword: Let us keep it bright for Liberty's sake.

The Cross of Christ: The exponent of Christian ideals, the conqueror of death, the giver of life. Supreme reverence for this sacred symbol will crown our Country queen in the sisterhood of nations. It is the bulwark of national honor, the inspiration of patriotism, the guardian of personal worth; for it was crimsoned with the blood of self-sacrifice.

Let the Holy Spirit Move you this Pentecost: Ed Van Buskirk

As we approach the feast of Pentecost, I want to share with you one of the most enlightening moments my wife and I had on a pilgrimage we made to the Holy Land a few years ago. It was not a planned destination, but it led to a holy moment when we heard His small yet powerful whisper.

One evening, our guide Mike invited anyone who wanted to join him in praying the Rosary to come to an upper room at our hotel in Jerusalem. The upper room was appropriately named Pentecost Hall. At the designated time, my wife and I walked into the large room, and in the next several minutes it became apparent why the Holy Spirit had invited me to that place at that moment.

The room completely captivated me: a most engaging mural of Pentecost covered three of the four walls. The expressions on the faces of the apostles as the tongues of fire descended upon them showed a spectrum of emotions. Amazement, fear, joy, peace, curiosity, excitement, doubt, and hope. I was awestruck! But there was so much more to experience in the masterpiece. Mike explained how the first Pentecost took place during the annual Jewish Festival of Weeks, also known as Shavuot. He then shared with us that Shavuot was a commemoration of when God gave the Ten Commandments to Moses on Mt. Sinai and that, as part of the Shavuot ceremony, the Ten Commandments were read aloud.

At one end of the room, the mural shows the apostle Peter reading the Ten Commandments and the Law of Moses. It is while he is reading them that the Holy Spirit descends as tongues of fire on those present.

As I stood there trying to etch the artwork into my memory, Mike explained that the apostles and Mary were not alone in the upper room. Rather, because it was the annual Jewish festival of Shavuot, those present included the family members and friends of Jesus, Mary, the apostles, and the disciples. Furthermore, the tongues of fire did not just descend on Mary and the apostles. The Holy Spirit descended upon the others too, empowering them to carry on the mission of the Church by telling others of the truth and love of Jesus.

As I observed the amazement of these men, women, and children of all ages, I recalled how, through my Baptism and Confirmation, the Holy Spirit had been given to me too. It seemed as though time stood still so that I could comprehend the interconnection of the Ten Commandments, the Holy Spirit, Pentecost, the inauguration of the Catholic Church, and the Great Commission of Jesus with His instructions: Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age.

Matthew 28:19-20

The Holy Spirit didn't just empower the apostles. Through our Baptism and Confirmation, we are all empowered and commissioned by the Holy Spirit. He sends each one of us, with our unique gifts, to go to our families, neighbors, and coworkers, to participate with Him in "teaching all that [Jesus] commanded [us]."

This Pentecost Sunday linger for a few moments in the church and envision yourself in the mural of Pentecost Hall. Put yourself right there with everyone in the upper room. Read the passage in Exodus 20 where God reveals the Ten Commandments to Moses. Then, listen for the small yet powerful whisper of the Holy Spirit. Be still and let the Holy Spirit reveal to you how He has empowered you to participate with Him in His witness to the world.
